License Agreement for Key2Pass

This license agreement (the "Agreement") is between you and Eureka Consulting AB (the "Publisher") and governs your use of the Key2Pass software (the "Software"). The Software is distributed through the Microsoft Store and is subject to both this Agreement and Microsoft's Standard Application License Terms. In the event of a conflict, Microsoft's terms apply to the extent required to comply with their policies.

By installing or using the Software, you accept the terms of this Agreement. If you do not accept the terms, you must not install or use the Software.

1. License Grant

The Publisher grants you a limited, non-exclusive, and non-transferable license to install and use the Software in accordance with the Microsoft Store license terms and this Agreement.

2. Ownership

The Software is licensed, not sold. All intellectual property rights in the Software and related materials belong to the Publisher or its licensors.

3. Permitted Use

You may use the Software for personal or internal use. You may not distribute, sell, rent, lease, lend, or otherwise make the Software available to any third party without the Publisher's written consent.

4. Restrictions

You may not decompile, reverse engineer, disassemble, modify, or circumvent technical protections in the Software, except to the extent required by mandatory law.

5. Updates and Support

The Publisher may provide updates or upgrades. Such updates or upgrades are covered by this Agreement unless otherwise stated. Support is provided by the Publisher using the contact information listed in the Microsoft Store.

6. Data Protection

The Software processes only the information you enter yourself and does not store it outside your device. The Publisher does not collect personal data through the Software without your explicit consent. You are responsible for ensuring that your use complies with applicable data protection legislation.

7. Warranty

The Software is provided as is, without any express or implied warranties. The Publisher does not warrant that the Software will be error-free or uninterrupted.

8. Limitation of Liability

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Publisher's liability is limited to the amount, if any, paid for the Software. The Publisher is not liable for indirect damages, loss of profit, or lost data. The Software is not intended for use in safety-critical systems.

9. Termination

The Agreement remains in effect until further notice. You may terminate the Agreement by uninstalling the Software and deleting all copies. The Publisher may terminate the Agreement if you breach its terms.

10. Governing Law and Disputes

The Agreement is governed by Swedish law. Disputes shall primarily be resolved through negotiations and, secondarily, by a Swedish court of general jurisdiction, with the Stockholm District Court as the court of first instance.

11. Microsoft's Role

Microsoft is not a party to this Agreement and is not responsible for the Software, its content, support, or any claims arising from its use.

12. Miscellaneous

If any provision of the Agreement is deemed invalid, it shall be replaced by a valid provision that closely reflects the original intent. The Agreement shall otherwise remain in effect.

By installing or using the Software, you confirm that you have read and accept this Agreement.
